FEW OF THE DEMOCRATS, POPULISTS AND SILVI

W. A. Peffer, Kansas, ex-U. S. Senator. Bryan's action in connection with the Philippines is treason.

Hon. Charles Denby, of Evansville, Ind., President Cleveland's Minister to China. Mr. Bryan first urged the purchase of the Philippines from Spain, and then as soon as the islands were purchased he set up the cry of imperialism, and harps upon it night and day, which he knows to be

W.M. Stewart, Nevada, U. S. Senator. McKinley promises the better administration. Bryan preached treason in encouraging the Filipinos to resist. Lee Mantle, Butte, Montana, ex-U. S. Senator. Bryan would degrade the George Hondly, New York, N. Y., ex-Governor of Ohio. McKinley is a bet-ter man than Bryan ever can be.

James H. Eckels, Comptroller of Currency under President Cleveland. Afraid of free silver and against Bryanism.

W. D. Bynum, ex-Congressman and Democrat. Indiana. Favors sound money and scouts the idea of "imperialism."

Col. Oliver C. Sabin, formerly secretary of the Silver Knights of America.

The present money standard has proved the best. Free trade means pauperism. Is an expansionist."

Marion Butler, North Carolina, U. S. Senator. Democrats carry elections by unlawful means.

W. E. English, Indianapolis, ex-Congressman, and son of the Democratic nominee for Vice-President in 1880. For expansion and sound money and for supporting an honest administration.

Joseph H. Outhwaite, of Columbus, O., ex-Congressman and a leader of his party. Want sound money. Nothing in imperialism.

Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Nebraska, ex-President Cleveland's Secretary of Agriculture. Against Bryanism.

Hon. James E. Boyd, the only Democratic governor Nebraska ever had. Imperialism is impossible and free silver a mistake.

Dennis A. Hayes, President Green Glass International Association: "I do not allow politics to mix with my business affairs, but I cannot help thinking how politics and business go together. I hope for Mr. lickinley's election from the working man's standpoint. When the Wilson law became effective our trade was reduced 15 per cent in wages. After McKinley was elected wages were restored. I am an expansionist."

General John C. Black, of Illinois, former Pension Commissioner. Expansion and favors supporting our men in the Philippines.

General Paul Van der Voort, Nebraska, formerly national commander of the G. A. R. Sound money.

BRYAN REPUDIATED BY THE VOTERS OF HIS OWN STATE

Dr. George L. Miller, founder of the Omaha Herald. Bryan unsafe, Judge Eleazer Wakeley, the leader of the Omaha bar. Because Bryan is mistaken about the Phil-

to Congress. Silver, Thomas B. McPherson, President of the Omaha Cattle Loan Co. and cashier of the Union Stock Yards National Bank. Bryan's election would cause a panic. Euclid Martin, of Omaha, for years a leader of the Democratic party, formerly Chairman of the Democratic State Committee and Postmaster of Omaha under Cleveland. Favors the present stable Edward Riley, of Omaha, party wheelhorse. Eryan's failure as a prophet, and prosperity.

F. B. Lawrence, President of the Lawrence Shot and Lead Co., Nebraska, has voted Democratic since 1864. Wants stable currency.

E. Wyman, Shelton, Neb., Populist member of Legislature. Will not fuse with the Democrats.

George E. Pritchett, Nebraska, a lifelong Democrat. Money issue. B. T. Farasworth, formerly Democratic city attorney of South Omaha, Neb. Because Bryan has been giving aid to the Filipinos.

Judge W. D. McHugh, leading attorney, Omaha. Bryan's failure as

Warren Snitzler, Nebraska, nom-inee of the Gold Democrats in 1897 for Supreme Court Justice. General and business man of Mt. Carroll, Ill., after reading the statement signed by

I could not express them in clearer or more forcible language. I shall vote

William Bourner, Vandalia, Ill.,

James Rice, Denver, Colo., ex-Secre-

Lyman Henry, Ouray, Colo., Chair-

tion has helped farmers. Henry Kellar, Sault Center, Minn.,

Timothy Coakley, Boston, Mass., lawyer and free silver man. Does not wish to see American flag hauled

W. S. Robinson, Marceline, Mo.,

Democrat for 70 years. The anti-ex-pansion argument is thinner than

Co., New York. Sound money. L. C. Mead, Fresno, Cal., ex-

Legislature.

administration.

City platform.

to be a mistake.

the Philippines.

of Bryanism.

land administration.

Charles W. Lyman, President of the Commercial National Bank, Omaha. Always been a Democrat. Is against radicalism as represented

William F. Wappich, resigned from Douglass County (Neb.) Dem-ceratic Council because he could not idorse the Kansas City platform.

W. L. May, ex-State Fish Com-missioner of Nebraska. Voted for Palmer and Buckner in 1826. Sil-

Lee W. Spratren, Omaha, promi-nent worker in the Democratic ranks. Silver.

E. L. Stone, of Dewey & Stone, furniture dealers, Omaha. Prosper-ity and believes in letting well

Dr. George Tilden, Omaha. Democratic worker for many years. Silver and the Philippine question.

Democratic worker. Believes in letting well enough alone. Dr. H. Chambers, Fremont, Neb. Active supporter of Bryan in 1896.

N. J. Pascoe, Dodge County, Nebraska, For twenty-five years a Democrat. Expansion and sound present prosperity.

Dr. John T. Pottoc, formerly a member of the Illinois Legislature. General Walter S. Turnbull, a San Francisco capitalist. George W. Jones, Lawrenceville, Ill., formerly sheriff of Crawford County and a leading Democrat. Believes in expansion. The administration has proved its competency in handling all questions.

George W. Baker, a leading San Francisco lawyer. Mr. Baker handled all the funds of the Silver Republicans in San Francisco and all California in Judge W. C. Duncan, of Columbus, Ohio. Cannot support the principles of Popocracy, and is for expansion.
Judge N. B. Hyatt, Webster City,
Iowa. Sound money and expansion.
Jas. B. Miller, a life-long Democrat cisco, Cal., formerly chairman of the Democratic State Committee and State Harbor Commissioner. Brother of ex-Congressman Warren D. English. Colonel C. H. Maddux of San Fran-

Wm. T. Baker of Chicago announcing his intention to vote for President Mc-Kinley this year, said: "The senti-ments of Mr. Baker are mine exactly."

Crittenden Thornton of San Fran-isco, the lawyer. Russell Heath, an influential farmer for McKinley."
James S. Evans, southern Democrat, now of Chicago. Democratic party is hypocritical in talking about consent in Santa Barbara, Cal.

of the governed in the Philippines E. F. after forcing white supremacy in the banker.

ator. cratic Postmaster of Houghton, Mich. Legislature. Democrats at Kansas City were cowardly on silver.

S. M. Large, Athens, Ill., ex-member egislature. McKinley has given good J. Hervey Cook of Fishkill-on-the-Hudson, N. Y. John H. Scheidt, the Brooklyn Cannot swallow the Kansas

G. Van Hoorebecke, Carlyle, Ill., ex-United States District Attorney. Imperialism is a bugaboo and dislikes

Democrat, ex-mayor of Fall River. J. H. Thomas, Annapolis, Md., excollector of the port. Opposed to 16 tary of State. Free silver has proved E. E. Andersen, New York City, cotton broker. Democrats cannot assume responsibility for Bryan.

William C. Webster, prominent attorney, Nokomis, Ill., and life-long Democrat. Believes in continuing disrupted the party.

prosperity. Lloyd Jackson, Baltimore, Md., Bryan's manager in '96. Kansas City plat-form is un-American on expansion. W. F. Ritter, Jersey City, Demo-cratic Alderman. In favor of holding

Louis, Ill. Was on Democratic Electoral ticket four years ago. Favors man Populist Committee. Four years have shown the Republicans were

Central Committeeman. M. Dill, Belleville, Ill., Judge Cir-Savings Bank East St. Louis III. cuit Court. The Republican party was Edgar H. Gans, one of the ablest at-torneys in Baltimore, Md. Wants sound money. Believes imperialism a Jacob Stern, Erie, N. Y., Surrogate of Erie County. "I am what Bryan calls an imperialist."

straw man. Fred Dahler, Fana, Ill., President Altgeld Club in '96. Favors expansion H. Waldo, life-long Democrat, Rockford, Ill. Don't want free silver.

and opposes free silver.

C. H. Hopkins, Henville, Minn., leading farmer and Populist. The gold standard has proved to be right.

"Jack" Hale, Tilford, S. D., large wool grower. McKinley's administration has belong farmers. Democratic policy.

W. W. Ford, Blcomfield, Mo., for years one of the leading Democrats

ism is senseless

State Senator. Is an expansionist and sound money man.

G. D. Perkins, Minneapolis, Minn., St. Anthony veteran. Has grown tired Thomas F. Ryan of New York, a Democrat and associated with William C. Whitney in business enterprises. Prosperity and the money

Sidney V. Lowell, prominent Democratic attorney of Brooklyn. Bryan's position in the Philippine rebellion is treasonable.

John Johnson, recently Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of McDonald County, Missouri. Prosper-longer has a definite policy.

H. S. Foote of San Francisco, United Webster Nance of Hubbard, Mo., States District Attorney in the Clevewho has been a Democrat for sixty years.

KANSAS APPRECIATES McKINLEY PROSPERITY

M. B. Nicholson, Council Grove, Kan. Judge District Court. "The present attitude of the Democratic party is not patriotic."

J. M. Dunsmore, Speaker Kansas House of Representatives, 1893.

I am a loyal American and propose to support candidates who will vote to hold every inch of ground acquired by war. Paul F. Jones, Marion, Kan., fusion nominee for Senator in 1896. I have always been a Democrat, but I can't see how a man can call him-self a Democrat and array himself under the banner of Bryan. W. A. Choguill, Humboldt, Kan., fusion nominee for Legislature in The Republican party is the party of progress; the Democratic the party of negation. I shall vote the Republican ticket.

Judge B. H. Thompson, Norton, Kan. With prosperity at home and the country enjoying the respect of the world, this is not the time for a change. F. H. Horton, Mayor of Clifton,

Mr. Bryan's prophecies have failed to come to pass, and he and his party are now acting unpatriot-

James Jackson, ex-County Clerk, Oberlin, Kan. I shall go with the Republican party because it has principles and stays by them.

Professor W. W. Runyon, Marion, Kan. The Philippine policy of the Democrats is unpatriotic, contradicdemocrats is inpatriotic, contradic-tory and absurd.

George W. Simmons, Argentine, Kan. President of a club of forty Democrats who voted for Bryan, but will vote for McKinley. As between Populism and socialism, filtered through the channel of Bryanism, we prefer McKinleyism.

J. T. Gaskell, Mayor of Sterling, Kan. I don't want a change.

Judge R. J. Graham, Ottawa,
Kan. I am in accord with this administration on the issue Mr. Bryan calls "imperialism."

L. L. Seeley, Kingman, Kan., nominated this year for County Commissioner by the fusionists, declines, saying: I believe a continuance of the Republican party in power will be for the country's

W. H. Savery, Populist County Attorney, Cloud County, Kansas. I will take the stump for McKinley because I believe he is right. Orson King. Mayor of Randolph, Present conditions make it impossible for me to again vote for Bryan. Will Bororth, Catlin, Kan. I have a boy in the Philippines, and I want to stand by the party that stands by my boy. C. E. Collins, Baxter Springs, Kan. Populist leader. McKinley's administration has brought pros-

J. Jones, Hutchinson, Kan. ilist State Senator, Repub-Populist State Senator, Republicans are right on the money ques

James Donivan, Lakin, Kan., Chairman Democratic Committee. Bryan represents too many political

T. W. Wool, Altelope, Kan., ex-Confederate soldier. Bryan's course has encouraged Aguinaldo in rebel-

P. J. Hamble, Valley Falls, Kan., Chairman Populist Committee.
Convinced free silver is a fake.
J. Frey, Topeka, Kan., ex-manager Santa Fe road. The Republican party runs the country on correct business principles.

John Rehrig, Burlingame, Kan., ex-Populist Representative. Kinley is right on the money ques-

C. W. Mains, Sewell County, Kan., Populist Probate Judge. Has had enough anti-patriotic utterances. Rev. P. E. Jones, Marion, Kan. minister and Populist. McKinley is right on the Philippine question.

J. W. Farrell, Wier City. Kas., Captain Spanish war. Democrats cannot consistently fuse with Popu-

James Lofty, Council Groves, Kan., Probate Judge, McKinley McKinley has made a good President.
W. E. Kibbe, Council Groves, Kan., Populist leader. Bryanism is like rainbow chasing.

John Brown, Agency Township, Page County, Kan. Well satisfied with this administration and pros-Wm. Addis, ex-Mayor of Empo-

Thos. W. Wood, Marion County, W. A. Disch, ex-Secretary Populist Convention Central Committee, Labette County, Kansas. John Larson, Populist Central Convention Committee, Riley County, Kansas. M. J. Garbett, Populist, Jefferson County, Kansas.

A. V. Houghton, Cottonwood Falls, Kan. Sam Pratt, Populist, Wabaunsee County, Kansas.

Chas. Enlow, Populist, Wabaunsee County, Kansas. Wm. Clarkson, Populist, Marion,

L. W. Kee, Concordia, Kan. Capt. John Ritchie, Eldorado, John Livermore, Harper County,

J. H. H. Kelly, Council Grove,

Geo. Ross, Washington, Kan. John Brown, Lomax, Kan. Reuben Kent, Spring Mill, Kan. C. Bailey, Spring Hill, Kan. O. F. Nelson, Brown County,

B. G. Hopkins, Council Grove, Judge Shipp, Ft. Scott, Kan. W. C. Short, Osborn County, Kan-

W. D. Olney, Burlington, Kan. Thos. Hanson, Summitt, Kan. Jos. O'Darr, Emporia, Kan. Jos. Spencer, Spring Hill, Kan. Brey Cassaway, Spring Hill, Kan. Arthur J. Heath, Wilson County, Kansas.

Geo. W. Bayne, Oberlin, Kan.
Dr. Carl Swenson, President
Bethany College, Lindsborg, Kan.

Prosperity. Dr. N. S. Tobey, Salina, Kan. A. A. Newman, department store, Arkansas City, Kan. Prosperity. Geo. Crotzer, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. W. H. Daniels, painter, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Eli Evans, merchant, Delaware County, Kansas, Prosperity, H. R. Troth, electrician, Delaware County, Kansas, Prosperity. J. S. Faulk, carpenter, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. S. R. Green, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Wm. Fifer, farmer, Delaware

County, Kansas. Prosperity. Frank Bruton, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.
P. Kamm, traveling man, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.
C. F. Bliss, traveling man, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Newton Bilger, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.

A. Utz, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.
J. P. McClug, farmer, Delaware

County, Kansas. Prosperity.

John Cramer, carpenter, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.

J. L. Giossell, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.
D. S. Carly, farmer, Delaware
County, Kansas. Prosperity.
Jas. Brown, paper hanger, Delaware
County, Kansas. Prosperity.
C. G. Holstrum, tinner, Delaware
County, Kansas. Prosperity.

County, Kansas. Prosperity.
Geo. Gelger, pharmacist, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity.
Thieman Williams, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Frank Mannock, farmer, Dela-ware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. A. B. Burton, farmer, Delaware

County, Kansas. Prosperity. Dr. Gillman, physician, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. John Giliis, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Henry Blumberg, farmer, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. W. M. Stewart, farmer, Delaware

County, Kansas, Prosperity. H. H. Painter, retired farmer, Delaware County, Kansas, Pros-John Wander, farmer, Delaware

County, Kansas. Prosperity. W. M. Danills, painter, Delaware County, Kansas. Prosperity. Anthony Hann, Sumner County,

Andrew Downer, Ellis County, Kan.

J. F. Kelsey, Jewell, Kan. J. F. Kelsey, Jewell, Kan. Fryer Angood, Harvey, Kan. S. A. Black, Kiley, Kan. M. J. Ggrrett, Jeflerson, Kan. W. Whipky, Endosdale, Kan. J. L. Hopkins, Kingman, Kan. J. H. Lancaster, Franklin, Kan., soldier in the Philippines. Fred Ott, Eudora, Kan Burnett Baxter, Franklin, Kan. H. E. Noble, Sherman, Kan.

George Dailey, of Ottawa, Kan., Philippine soldier. Pierce Nossman, Kingman, Kan. O. C. Grove, Harvey, Kan. H. B. Lucas, editor of the McCune

George B. Shaw, traveling man, Charles Longleft, Cowley, Kan. John Schutts, Greenleaf, Kan. A. D. Stafford, Smith, Kan. Lieutenant William Weaver, Emporia, Kan., a Philippine soldier G. A. Vandever, Hutchinson, Kan. J. W. Berryman, Ashland, Kan. W. L. Thompson, Howard, Kan., who soldiered with Roosevelt in

W. F. Noble, St. John, Kan, William Collins, Burton, Kan, V. Prindle, Burton, Kan. David Hanselman, Burton, Kan. W. T. Davis, Burten, Kan.

MANY INDIANA DEMOCRATS WHO KNOW GOOD TIMES

lis, Ind.

John S. Buzzard, Huntington, Ind., Democratic candidate for sheriff in 1894. Sound money, national growth and commercial and industrial prosperity.

Captain L. C. Baird, civil engineer and Spanish war veteran, Jeffersonville, Ind. "I am for expansion and sound money." John T. Strange, attorney, Ma-rion, Ind. Delegate to the Demo-cratic National Convention of 1896, late Democratic candidate for Grant county circuit judge. Believes in letting present prosperous condi-tions alone, and that McKinley's administration deserves endorsement.

Joseph Newberger, ex-postmaster

Matthews, Ind.
Hon. George T. Whittaker, Dunkirk, Ind., state's attorney. "Bryan is a many-sided, dangerous man. I am opposed to his disloyal proposition to haul down the flag in the Philippines."

Herman Hulman, Jr., wholesale grocer, Terre Haute, Ind. "The financial question is, of course, the main issue with me, but I approve the foreign policy of the McKinley administration. I regard Mr. Bryan's views, both on the money question and foreign affairs, as unwise not to say uponts. I am will. wise, not to say unsafe. I am will-ing to intrust what interests I have at stake to an administration that has made such a splendid record.' A. H. Urban, manager Indiana Shovel Co., New Castle, Ind.; "Bryan is an insincere and dangerous man. The issue in the cam-paign is Bryanism, and I want to

D. F. Kennedy, Indiana organizer of the American Federation of La-bor. Opposed to 16 to 1 and nothing in "imperialism."

John Ruby, business man Charleston, W. Va. Sound money.
H. D. McCormick, formerly Democratic State Senator in Missouri, now resident in Kentucky. Want sound

see it effectually and finally blotted

Richard Dalton of Missouri, who contested with William Stone in 1892 for governor. Made Republican speeches this campaign. Col. John P. Irish of California, Cleveland's naval officer at San Francisco. Sound money and expansion. General Charles Tracy, New York. Sound money. L. C. Krauthoff, Illinois. Sound money.

L. M. Martin, Iowa. Sound money.
W. R. Shelby, Michigan. Sound money. Clinton K. Tharp, Mayor of Washington, Ind., former member of the State Senate. Frenzel, Indianapolis. Sound money. Talford P. Linn, leading attorney Columbus, Ohio. Sound money

Thomas F. Corrington, Georgia. Sound money. Cordon Woodbury, New Hampshire. Sound money. Louis F. Ogden, Wisconsin. Sound

money. Dr. Thomas Goostree, of Salem, Ill. one of the oldest practitioners in Southern Illinois and a life-long Democrat, has renounced Bryan and the Democratic ticket, saying he and his two sons, also Democrats, will work to secure the success of the Republican ticket. He says Bryanism savors too much of anarchism Samuel Keel of Salem, Ill., who supported Bryan in 1896, has severed his connection with the Democratic party and will vote for McKinley.

W. G. Ferguson, a retired farmer of Odin, Ill., and a former Democratic wheelhorse in Marion County, has served notice on the Democratic lead-ers that he stands no longer identified with that party and will support Mc-Kinley, for the reason that the expansion policy is Democratic doctrine of the Jefferson brand.

John Sager, a merchant, Helm, Ill., was raised a Democrat, but has joined the McKinley club of his place, and in a speech on that occasion he repu-diated Bryan and all that Bryanism Ferdinand Stedenger, editor, Rockford, Ill. Favors prosperity. Against 16 to 1. Samuel Belcher, Gilman, Ill. Against any change.

Thomas H. Stokes, Lincoln, Ill., formerly Democratic postmaster. Sugar-coating the Bryan pill does not make Bailey Rossette, editor, DeKalb, Ill. McKinley has given a wise and pa-triotic administration and deserves re-

Judge Fred Bross, Cairo, Iil. Want a government that will stand for sound principles and practices. A. R. Haines, Canton, Ill., a Demo-cratic Patriarch. Bryan is a political mountebank, charlatan and trickster. I am for expansion and against 16 to 1.

am for expansion and against 18 to 1. Am opposed to the giving up of a pebble on the Philippiaes.

Judge W. R. Curran, Pekin, Ill., elected Judge of Tazewell County by the Democrats six years ago. I am tired of Bryanism and am now devoting my time to the organization of Republican clubs.

J. M. Kiefer and Q. C. Ward, Macomb, Ill. We organized the first Gold Democratic club in 1896, with 120 members, but they are all for McKin-ley now. Capt. William H. Hilligoss, Muncie, Ind., for many years on Delaware county Democratic county committee. "Imperialism is a fake." Is an expansionist.

Otto Frenzel, Indianapolis, Ind.

Paul Krauss, Indianapolis, Ind.

Albert Lieber, brewer, Indianapo-

Sound money.

Capt. W. W. Keen, Dunkirk, Ind., served in three different regiments during the civil war and has been a Democrat many years. Opposed to Bryan's scheme of shouting impe-rialism. It is flimsy and the thin-nest thing yet produced. George W. McDonald, secretary Gold Democratic Committee of Indiana.

Albert Traber, one of the most prominent German-Americans of Indianapolis.
G. C. Conn, Elkhart, Ind., ex-

Congressman. Present prosperity and opposition to free silver. George A. Tanner, Indianapolis, prominent Democrat. Had enough of 16 to 1 and anti-expansion.

Col. Leroy Templeton, Indianapo-lis, formerly of Fowler, Nothing in the issue of Bryan democracy. Maurice Thompson, Crawfordsville, Ind. Sound money and ex-

Judge Charles N. Pollard, one of the most prominent lawyers of Howard county, Indiana, and his son, Otis Pollard, have repudiated son, Otis Pollard, have repudiated Bryan and announce their intention of supporting President McKinley, Judge Pollard has been prominent in Democratic politics for years and was nominated by President Cleveland in 1885 for a Territorial Judgeship. He is tired of Bryanism.

J. C. Careiton, Bedford, Ind., Mexican war veteran. McKinley has promoted soldiers from the ranks.

Dr. L. Tibbetts, Rockford, Ill. I voted the Gold Democratic ticket four years ago, but am for McKinley now. I have experienced no change of heart on Bryanism.

George Conklin, Sumner, Ill., ex-Town Clerk, Democratic candidate for County Clerk in Kankakee County four years ago. I am in favor of Me-Kinley, prosperity and expansion.
F. C. Hasemeyer, Peotone, lil. I voted the Democratic ticket for fifteen years, but am now opposed to free silver and am in harmony with expansion and McKinley.

Professor S. S. Hamill, Jacksonville.

Ill. Former instructor and friend of Bryan. I have notified Mr. Bryan that I cannot support him and his policy this year.

Dr. C. W. Mathews, Richmond, 111.
I have been a life-long Democrat, but recently declined re-election as County Central Committeeman, and will support McKinley. Dr. R. H. Henry, Peotone, Ili. I have renounced Bryanism and will support McKinley this year.

John Cann, Will County, Illinois.

Democratic ex-Committeeman, I voted for Bryan four years ago, but will work for McKinley and prosperily this year.
Robert Norman, Peotone, Ill., ex-Justice of the Peace and member of the Democratic Central Committee. have come to the conclusion that cannot vote for Bryan again, for, Bryan is elected, it will bring a return of hard times.

Dr. H. S. Burnett, Raleigh, Saline County, ill. I was born a Democrat, and would not feel right in any other party, but the unprecedented prosper-ity of the country will cause me to vote for McKinley this year. Daniel Crabtree, Weber, Jefferson County, Ill. I will be 100 years old next February and have always voted the Democratic ticket, but this year, if I live, I shall vote for McKinley and whole Republican ticket because I believe it is best Dr. J. W. Stone, Springerton, III. cannot support Bryan and his plat-form this year, but will assist protection and expansion by speech and bai-

Roderick Von. Manstein. Chicago Ill., President of the Society of Vet-erans of the German Army in Illinois, although I am a Democrat I am strongly opposed to the popocratic 16 to I fallacy, and shall work and vote for McKinley.

Dr. John T. Pollock, former Democratic member of the Illinois Legislature and one of the famous "101" who elected John M. Pollock.

elected John M. Palmer Senator. Although a stanch Democrat I intend to support McKinley and the whole Re-publican ticket this fall.

William Goalby and three sons, Parcy, Ill. We have always been Democrats, but the present unpatriotic attitude of the Democratic party and Motude of the Democratic party and McKinley's splendid administration has caused us to join the Republicans.

Louis Schliervoch, Christian County, Illinois. Farmer. I have always been an uncompromising Democrat, but i am now squarely for McKinley.
Frank Maucker, Woline, Ill. I have had work for the past three years and worked overtime till I begged for holidays, and had good wages all the time, and shall 10 longer vote the Democratic ticket, but support McKinley.

John L. Jennings, Burns, Ill. Life-long Democrat and relative of William Jennings Bryan. I shall vote for Mc-Kinley this year, and my change of faith is due to the imperialistic issue.

who twice assisted Bryan's election

Democratic party is populistic.

warehouseman, Omaha. Prosper-

Henry W. Yates, President Ne-braska National Bank. Many years

Bryan's predictions in 1896 came untrue.

Julius Beckman, Fremont, Ne-braska, a leading business man, Bryan unsafe. Is satisfied with Horace G. Platt of San Francisco, Cal., a prominent lawyer. J. W. Oates, brother of Governor Oates of Georgia, of Santa Rosa, Cal. Formerly Democratic candidate for State Senator.

cisco, formerly State Senator.
Robert Y. Hayne, a member of the San Francisco bar.

E. F. Berward of Fresno, Cal., the James A. Leisen of Menomince, Adolph Hirsch, of Heller Hirsch & Mich., formerly Democratic State Sen-

> W. C. Dewitt, for many years corporation counsel of Brooklyn. L. J. Williams, president of the West Virginia Bar Association.

John W. Cummings of Fall River. Mass., the prominent lawyer and Gold

G. A. Koerner, Belleville, Ill. Silver. Phil M. Gundlach, Gundlach Drill Works, East St. Louis, Ill. Bryan has

Adam Guentz, ex-President Western Brewery, East St. Louis, III.
Barnhard Hartman, President Star Brewery, East St. Louis, III.
Gus Hilyard, ex-County Surveyor, East St. Louis, III.
Edward Abend, attorney, East St. Louis, III.

Green Paterson, farmer East St. Louis, Ili. Was formerly Democratic Richard Waugelin, cashier Belleville

Judge William Newton, Flint, Mich. In favor of expansion as a Jeffersonian of Stoddard County. Believes that ex-pansion is right and cry of imperial-

A. S. Wilderman, St. Clair County, R. C. Springate, business man, El Pilinois, Circuit Judge. Democracy no Paso, Ill. We should let well enough

West Goodwin, editor Sedalia, Afraid of free silver. Imperialism is mere rubbish. Dr. R. S. Henry, Charleston, W. Va. "For McKinley from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet." Major A. Burlow, Charleston, W. Va.

Want sound money.

Judge Jamest, Hoblet, Ill., leading Democrat. Believes in sound money. W. S. Robinson of Marceline, Mo., deserted Bryanism.

Col. George W. Wardner of Kansas City, who has always stumped the states for Democracy, Conditions have